

Please do not impliment any new proposal that would lessen the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. It has been wonderful. I was receiving up to 15 calls per day before this law was inacted. I may only receive one call per week now. I was able to file a complaint against one company that did not purchase the "No Call List" in our city and that company was fined, and was forced to purchase the list.